

COMPLETE SENTENCES REVIEW

WHICH OF THE FOLLOWING IS A SENTENCE FRAGMENT?

A. Joe and Sally ran up the hill to fetch a pale of water.

B. Even though they were upset.

C. The group made it to the top of the mountain, the other group was still on their way.

D. Sally was excited to go to Lagoon Joe was not excited at all.

WHICH OF THE FOLLOWING IS A RUN-ON SENTENCE?

- A. The group decided to stop for a picnic.
- B. The dog ran through the yard.
- C. Sally was going to miss her bus she didn't want to be late for school.
- D. The class was excited to have an on time class break.

WHICH OF THE FOLLOWING IS A COMMA SPLICE SENTENCE?

- A. They were excited to go on a field trip to the library.
- B. Alice ran through the house, and she knocked over the lamp in the living room.
- C. Joe went for a bike ride, and he discovered his back tire was almost flat.
- D. Sally went to the store, she forgot her purse.

WHICH OF THE FOLLOWING IS A COMPLETE SENTENCE?

- A. Halloween is less than a week away!
- B. Even though they were late to class.
- C. Fall is the best season, pumpkin spice is a popular flavor during the fall.
- D. The team was ecstatic about their win the team worked hard to be the best.

HOW DO YOU FIX A COMMA SPLICE SENTENCE?

- A. It doesn't need fixed. It's cool the way it is.
- B. Use a period and capitalize the second part of the sentence.
- C. Use a semicolon.
- D. Use one of the FANBOYS.
- E. Answers B, C, and D.

HOW DO YOU FIX A RUN-ON SENTENCE?

A. Use a semicolon.

B. It's good. No need to fix it.

C. Use a period and capitalize the second part of the sentence.

D. Use one of the FANBOYS.

E. Answers A, C, and D.

HOW DO YOU FIX A SENTENCE FRAGMENT?

- A. Attach the fragment to a nearby complete sentence.
- B. Add what is missing-subject, verb, complete thought.
- C. Rewrite the fragment or the passage that contains the fragment.
- D. Fragments are creative and should not be messed with.
- E. Answers A, B, and C.

YOUR TURN!!!

IN YOUR JOURNAL COMPLETE THE FOLLOWING:

Write an example of a sentence fragment, a run-on sentence, a comma splice sentence, and a complete sentence.

Share your sentences with your group.

Decide who has the best of each type of sentence.

Appoint a scribe.